

Brother Lawrence	Spiritual Maxims By Brother Lawrence (1605-1691) Those who have an experiential predisposition in their faith would do well to read The Conversations and Letters of Brother Lawrence... if they have not done so already. This is a lesser-known work, often overlooked. These Spiritual Maxims were manuscripts found amongst the aforementioned Letters and also written by Brother Lawrence himself. The Maxims are different from the letters — the careful arrangement adopted suggests matured thought and the inference is not unreasonable that he intended them to sum up his teachings. The reader apologises for the unworthiness of his delivery... the English itself was difficult enough to read and the ancient punctuation had more commas than full stops. My sometimes stilted delivery is caused by me being partially-sighted and having to read everything in short sections. (Introduction by the reader) Read by an Anonymous English Quaker; total running time: 00:25:46. Dedicated Proof-Listener: Betty M. Meta-Coordinator/Cataloging: Ruth Golding.	Spiritual Maxims
